

Hello and welcome

My name is Olika, and my art lives under Lolika. I make warm, cozy, detailed illustrations, mainly children's book art, character design, and custom portraits. Every piece is meant to step into, filled with little objects, cozy homes, and characters that feel lived in. I have a love for small details, vintage aesthetics, and soft textures that reward a second look.

A few words about me

My name is Olika Nikolska. I'm a Ukrainian illustrator based in Odesa, with a background that includes four years at a mobile game studio and years of freelance work spanning books, stickers, portraits, and brand illustration.

Outside of work, I'm a matcha and cocoa person with a real weakness for tiramisu and anything with cinnamon or strawberry. I also have a soft spot for collectible figures and building sets—my shelves will confirm that. I love sketching in a paper sketchbook and sharing my space with a cat, whom I also walk on a leash. He stops at every flower and leaf like it's the most important thing in the world, and honestly, he's not wrong. A good series, a YouTube video, or a TikTok rabbit hole can easily take over my evening. Home is where I feel most at ease, which is probably why I do my best work there.

Living in Odesa means life comes with surprises, and not always pleasant ones. But believing in better days and good endings is what keeps me drawing.
